PUBLIC COMMENT

Dan Hinsberger Officer Hinsberger gave a report on incidents requiring law enforcement in the township for April

Discussion took place with Tom Valentine, Robert Varner, William Sickner and Carl Sickner regarding petitions that were submitted for the referendum of the newly adopted zoning ordinance being invalid, as they were collected on obsolete forms. They set up a video camera and preceded to try to persuade the Board to place the zoning ordinance on the ballot even though the petitions did not meet the requirements of Election Law. Supervisor Moorhouse pointed out that the Township board does not have the authority to put the referendum on the ballot.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

Modreski default judgment on zoning violation The township requested and received a default judgement on the Modreski property at 4225 Piersonville Road to enter the property and erect a fence or fill in the swimming pool area. Zoning violation letters have gone unanswered for over a year.
